

Proper storage, care and shipping of planners, inserts, rings etc

Sending planners in the post of any type can be a worrying experience if you have never done it before.

In this episode Karine and Steve share their experience of sending planners in the post to far and distant places.

They also discuss storage and care of your planners when you aren't using them, plus tips on the storage of inserts and your other planner supplies and tools such as washi-tape and cutters and punches.

If you have ideas for future episodes please send them to steve at philofaxy dot com
